NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

LIFE'S VALUE DOUBLED—With a disordered stomach, physical and mental enjoyment are alike impossible. Every other organ sympathises with the great feeder of the system, and the mind becomes gloomy, irritable, and enfeebled. No change for the better is possible until the interrupted functions of digestion have been restored and regulated, and Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills, acting directly upon the stomach, the bowels, and the liver, arrest their morbid action and reinfuse into them the vigor of which disease has deprived them. Purgation and invigoration go on simultaneously, the appetite improves, the spirits brighten, and life, which is literally a burden to the dyspeptic, becomes once more enjoyable. The sugar-coating prevents the possibility of contact between the palate and the substance of the pills, and makes them agreeable to take. cj—je7

SATURDAY, JUNE 7, 1873.

A STARVING CREW.

There is but too much reason to suppose that 36 men, or the survivors, of the schooner London, last heard of at Sea Bear Bay on the coast of Patagonia, are now in a starving condition. On the 12th of April they had provisions for 3 weeks, expecting in that interval to be able to reach Montevideo or Buenos Ayres; but 8 weeks have now elapsed without any tidings of them or their vessel.

The ship-captain who gives us this gloomy intelligence left Sea Bear Bay on April 12th. and encountered a tremendous storm a few days later, in which he thinks it is likely the schooner London may have been driven ashore or wrecked. He adds that a vessel will be ready to sail in a fortnight hence, which generously offers to take gratis a supply of provisions for the sufferers, in the event that Consular or private relief be forthcoming, as the total cost of a suitable stock of provisions may be estimated at £200, which of course is beyond the means of any ship-master however charitably disposed.

The London carried the German flag, and we are anxious to see what action the Consul of the German Empire will take in a cause of such urgency. The captain and crew are not exclusively German: some of them are English, others French; so that, apart from the general claim of humanity upon us in their regard, we must also bear in mind that among the starving sufferers on that desert coast are men of our own land, language and traditions.

It will hardly be considered impertinent on our part to enlist the special attention of Mr. de Boer, agent for Underwriters' associations in this city, to the said case before us. No doubt he will be ready to second the German Consul, if necessary, in devising the best means of sending prompt relief to the poor castaways.

The distance from here to Sea Bear Bay is about a thousand miles; the coast is wild and rocky, the place being midway between the Welsh colony of Chupat and the Straits of Magellan. The Geraldine has made the trip twice between Buenos Ayres and Sea Bear Bay in about 7 days each way. The last time she brought up the captain and 19 sailors of the lost schooner B. Ayres, trading under the German flag, but on arrival here the owners of the ost vessel refused to pay Captain Nesbitt the cost of maintaining the 20 men on the voyage up from Sea Bear Bay.

When we consider that the offer of conveying gratis the provisions in question to the sufferers at Sea Bear Bay is equivalent to much more than the entire value of the provisions, it seems highly fortunate that such an occasion offers and we must hope that it will not be allowed to pass unavailed of.

If the German Consul or the Underwriter's Agent unfortunately feel unable to render assistance in a case of such dire calamity, it to be hoped for the honour of Buenos Ayres and of humanity that a hundred charitable persons may be found to subscribe enough to send down the necessary provisions. Not long ago a ship-chandler in Montevideo (Mr W. D. Evans) at his own expense provided outfits for the survivors of a vessel wrecked near Cape Horn. This reminds us that, in the midst of our growing commerce and importance, we have hitherto forgotten to form any association, or make provision for the relief of shipwrecked sufferers.

The sailor who was asked by the Court "how did you know it was the coast of England?" replied—

"Because a Lifeboat put off to rescue us."

Let it not be said that in Buenos Ayres on the contrary we allow men to perish of starvation on our coasts, for want of timely relief.

The St. Patrick's Society.

ELEVENTH ORDINARY MEETING.

On Thursday, 5th inst., the eleventh ordinary meeting of this society was held, the president, Mr. Thomas Armstrong, in the chair.

The Secretary read the minutes of the meeting, and the following correspondence:—

No. 14, Calle Balcarce,
Buenos Ayres, June 5, 1873.

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your favour of the 3rd inst., and beg, through you, to acknowledge my thanks to the St. Patrick's Society for the exertions made so far, in order to discover the heirs to the estate of the late Arthur Murray.

If I am not trespassing too far on the statutes of the society (of which I am ignorant), I have again to beg your intercession to discover, if possible, the heirs to the estate of another Irishman, Timothy Kenny, who died in this province in June, 1870, at the estancia of Dn. Anacleto Piñeyro, in the district of Magdalena, leaving a small flock of sheep. I have been informed that Timothy Kenny had been 20 years in the country, being nearly always on the same estancia, and is not known to have any relatives in this country, or to have been in communication with his friends in Ireland. The information of Kenny's death only reached the British Consulate in February, 1872, when I was appointed curator to the estate. The flock of sheep, wool, and other property, had been sold on the estancia by public sale, and the nett proceeds of said sale have been deposited in the Provincial Bank for the benefit of the legal heirs of Kenny, it such can, by any means, be traced out.

Begging that you will lay the fore going statement before the society.

I remain,
Dear sir,
Yours respectfully,
J. T. FOX.

W. Walsh, Esq., Secretary,
St. Patrick's Society,
Buenos Ayres.

With respect to Mr. Fox's letter, the Chairman having taken the sense of the meeting, directed the Secretary to inform Mr. Fox that the matter of T. Kenny's property, &c. has been placed in the hands of Mr. Vice-President Duggan, who will report as soon as possible to the Society thereon.

Buenos Ayres, June 4, 1873.

To the Secretary of the St. Patrick's Society.

Sir,

Referring to the discussion at the last meeting of the St. Patrick's Society relative to the necessity of the appointing a proper person to receive English speaking immigrants on their arrival at this port, I beg to offer my services. I have now had more than two years experience in this line, my calling obliging me to look after immigrants arriving here, and for the treatment they receive I can give reference to some of the first estancieros whose friends on their arrival stopped at my house; also to some of the immigrants theselves.

Hoping the Society will take this proposition into consideration,

I am,
Your obedient servant,
JAMES WEBER.

Mr. Weber's offer of services as temporary mole-head agent of the Society to attend upon passengers landing was entertained, Messrs. Mulhall, Walker and Lowe speaking to the subject.

Mr. Mulhall announced to the meeting that the Secretary of the National Emigration Board had called on him to say that the Government will defray all the landing charges of emigrants coming to the Society (Cheers).

M. Video, June 2nd, 1873

My Dear Sir,

Your esteemed favor dated 7th ult. turned up only a few days ago; and I am very grateful for the sentiments expressed therein in the name of the St. Patrick's Society, and of the approval of the assistance I tendered the passengers per Copernicus. It is now coming near the time to send them on to their destination, so I will look them up this week and enquire if they wish to go on, as I have heard that some intend remaining in their present employment. With regard to the one I have at my house, would you be so kind as to forward the enclosed lotter to her brother at Carmen de Areco?—as she has had no answer to the one I sent up enclosed to Mr. Mulhall, and I understand she wishes to hear from him before proceeding up.

Your obedient servant,
RICHARD T. WILSON.

Some members spoke very highly of the kind and benevolent exertions of Mr. Richard T. Wilson in this matter, the great use he had proved himself to the Society and to the Irish emigrants landing there, and congratulated the society upon having in Montevideo so excellent and worthy a representative. (Cheers.)

Dear Sir,

May I bespeak your good offices in favor of the (old) Widow Garahan, of near Rosario? She has come down in quest of an inheritance of one of her sons, William Garahan, whose widow has married again and an only child has died. Now, the good old Mrs. Garahan thinks she is entitled to the deceased grandchild's share, and comes to claim it. If a lawsuit is commenced, it will be bad for all parties, and I mean to arbitrate and get for Mrs. G. a few thousand dollars for her old age, and not disturb the present holders of the property, Mr. and Mrs. Daily, nee Garahan.

I was witness to and drew up the will of the deceased Mr. Garahan, and he most undoubtedly wanted to leave money to his mother, but she did not want it then and she refused it; now times have changed, and so, I suppose, has the old lady.

I shall have the pleasure of calling on you on Thursday D.V. and giving further details.

Mrs. G. stops at Mrs. Nealon's 24 Parque.

I remain, Rev. Sir,
Faithfully and sincerely yours,
NICHOLAS LOWE.

With regard to this matter as both parties are Irish, it was agreed not for the present to instruct the lawyer of the Society on the matter, but to request the parties to leave the question at issue to the arbitration of the Secretary of the Society.

Buenos Ayres, Junio 5, 1873.

Señor Presidente,

He recibido con el mayor placer su nota impresa en que me comunica he sido electo miembro de la Sociedad de San Patricio, que Vd. tan dignamente preside.

Acepto, Sr., esta honorosa distircion que se me hace y que solo quiera asi ponerlo en conocimiento de la Sociedad.

Saludo al Senor Presidente con todo mi consideracion.

FREDERICO TOBAL.

This closed the correspondence, the chairman then called upon the informing member of the Bye-law committee, to read the new rules.

Mr. Cowan read the rules; the various notices of amendment on the board were then taken down and discussed.

Rule No. 1 carried, No. 2 amended, 3 instead of 5 Directors forming quorum, all the subsequent rules carried down to No. 18, Messrs. Pippet & Lowe proposing amendments by striking out "three black balls reject a candidate" and inserting, "a majority of the directors present at an election can reject a candidate."

Mr. Walker seconded the amendment and spoke well and forcibly to the question. A long debate ensued on the question of electing by ballot or viva voce.

Mr. Hopkins proposed that the Directors for the consideration of this article invite every member present to vote; some of the committee members opposed.

Mr. Mulhall rose and said that he would not only vote for Mr. Hopkins's resolution but also thank him for proposity it, and he felt sure that when the question was properly looked at every Director in the room would take the same view of the matter. It was an error to suppose that the Directors wished to usurp any authority or exclude the members from a just and proper voice in the concerns of the Society; nothing could be further from their intent. It was necessary, of course, to place the management in the hands of Directors, but in the discussion of a bye law such as the present, which of right ought to have been introduced at the formation of the Society, it was a clear case when all present should take a part. He thanked the very numerous members for their attendance to-night spite of the weather, and believed that all the Directors present would be of his mind, and invite the members to vote on this question; which is of vital importance to the Society. (Cheers.)

Mr. Hopkins' proposition to the Directors was then put, and accepted unanimously by the Directors.

The amendment to Article 18 was then declared in order; a division was called for, and Dr. Kelly and Mr. Cowan were named tellers.

The amendment was carried by a small majority, which amounts to the rejection of the black ball system by the Society.

Articles 19, 20 and 21 were then passed.

Article 22 amended, 'six' being inserted in place of '24.'

The rest of the articles were then passed unanimously.

Mr. Davis proposed, and Mr. Mulhall seconded, that an additional article be passed, viz;

That the names of Directors present at the ordinary meetings be entered in the minutes. Passed nem. con.

Mr. Lowe proposed, and Mr. Duggan seconded, that a vote of thanks be passed to the Bye-law Committee. Passed.

Mr. Lowe next proposed that a library be attached to the reading rooms, and donations of books accepted. He would set the example by giving to the Society the following works:—Poetical works of Moore, Burns, Longfellow, Wordsworth, Byron; and 2 vols. of Humboldt's Cosmos.

Mr. Walker seconded the motion, which he regarded as a capital move, all the books being of a sound moral useful stamp; no French trashy novels admitted.

The Secretary was empowered to look to the selection of the books and to see they were of the right stamp. Passed with cheers.

Mr. Hopkins gave notice of motion for next meeting, that the Society make arrangements for giving a series of lectures in winter months, and securing a large hall.

The Secretary stated that he had advanced a small sum to two half-orphan children of a Mrs. Haggarty, who is now in the Convalescencia, and that the two elder children are at the convent, caren for by the nuns, but the two smaller children are of such a tender age that they must be given to a nurse, being only 1½ years and 3 years old respectively. The case was one claiming the protection of the society. The Secretary stated that a nurse had been found, who would care the children until such time as the mother recovered for the sum of $350 m|c. per month, which sum the meeting requested the Secretary to advance.

The Secretary stated Mr. John Dowling had handed in the subscriptions of eight new members, making his list 30. (Cheers.)

Mr. N. Lowe also handed in five, making his list 16. (Great cheers.)

THE BATTLE OF PARANA.

Parana, May 29th.

The Commander of the Garrison to the Minister of War and Marine.

I have the honor to inform Your Excellency that yesterday about 2 p.m. I received notice that the enemy was marching in strong columns upon the town; whereupon I set off at once with an aide-de-camp for the hospital quarter, to reconnoitre the assailants. Seeing that they were in some strength I sent out skirmishers of the 27th March infantry and a picquet of cavalry to keep them in check till the 5th Batt. of the Line with two field guns could come up in support.

As soon as the enemy saw this manoeuvre they rushed down on the flank of the 5th Batt. before it could get into line. Happily the cool intrepidity of Major Levalle, who was ably supported by his officers and men, saved the occasion and repulsed the enemy with heavy loss.

My artillery was not able to be as serviceable as might be desired, as the infantry left no room for the guns to fire, and being in a narrow street no movement could be effected. Nevertheless a few shots were given with good effect.

My cavalry, comprising only a picquet of suburban horse and another of the Urquiza squadron; undeterred by long odds, made a charge upon the besieging cavalry, causing some loss among the latter in killed and wounded. It our strength had been greater in cavalry the result of the day would have been a complete victory.

I cannot too highly applaud the conduct of Col. Viejo-bueno and Major Levalle. Our loss is trifling, including two of my staff wounded.

Congratulating the Government on the gallant behaviour of the forces and the flattering result of the day,

I remain,
JUAN AYALA.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

We dont exactly remember what the first thing in town yesterday was. Nothing particular, we believe. The weather crisis cleared up a little, and notwithstanding the monetary crisis no one has as yet 'cleared out'. The conversion of the Bonds gave everything and everybody a lift, at least they think so, and we hope they 're right, particularly if they happen to be subscribers. The news from any and every quarter yesterday was as lean as a lamp-post. However the Royal Mail of the 9th ult. from Southampton must be very near the Plate by this time, and anything it may bring—'sunshine', moonshine, or sovereigns, will all be equally welcome.

Too many newspapers! We have thought so for a long time. There are over twenty now going in the metropolis, and if a few of them were altogether 'gone', it would clear the literary atmosphere and mitigate the newspaper crisis. The proprietors of the Tribuna have, very sensibly, stopped their evening edition, and also reduced the subscription price of their daily issue to 25 m|c. per month. This shows how the editorial wind blows, and we calculate on a stiff 'pampero' before very long. Newspapers must take in sail in Buenos Ayres, or there 'll be shipwrecks. There are too many "three-deckers" in commission just now, and some of them must go into dock.

A full report of the meeting of the Saint Patrick's Society on Thursday night will be found in another column. This Association is going ahead marvellously.

On Thursday evening the Rev. W. Walsh gave a farewell banquet to the Rev. Kenelm Vaughan, who is about to leave for Montevideo. His Grace the Archbishop of Buenos Ayres, Dr. Aneiros, the Right Rev. Dr. Miege, Bishop of Kansas, Mr Thomas Armstrong, Mr. Luis Frias, Mr. Patrick Browne, Mr. Thomas Duggan, Mr. Thomas St. George Armstrong, Rev. Mr. ——, attendant on the archbishop, and Mr. E. T. Mulhall, were the guests of the evening. The first toast of the evening was given by the Rev. Mr. Vaughan, who, in very elegant terms, proposed the health of His Grace the Archbishop; at the same time thanking all those most worthy people of Buenos Ayres for their great assistance to his great work. Dr. Aneiros replied, and expressed a hope that Mr. Vaughan would take with him to his native land sunny memories of Buenos Ayres. Mr. Mulhall proposed the health of Dr. Miege, Bishop of Kansas. The Bishop responded. Mr. Thomas St. George Armstrong, in very graceful terms, proposed the health of our host, Rev. W. Walsh, who, in admirable terms, responded. Mr. Mulhall proposed the health of Mr. Thomas Armstrong, the president of the St. Patrick's Society. Mr. Armstrong returned thanks. Mr. Frias drank success to the College of St. Edmund's, England. The company then rose, and the Lord Archbishop, saying the episcopal grace, the party separated.

Our valued contemporary the Prensa is just as present putting itself to the useless expense of giving its readers a sketchy translation of the too famous Tichbourne case. However, it's better than writing about the Crisis. The Argentine and general foreign mind is extremely hazy on this Claimant business. The prevailing impression is that the Wapping Butcher is "Milor Tickbore", who has a claim to the Lord Mayor peerage, and is boring the Courts with it; others opine tha the is a Chilian estanciero, and some that he is uncle to Don Vhalley, M. P., and first cousin to Lord Gladstone, who wont acknowledge him till he gains his suit and forces his sister to abandon the mangling business. Perhaps, after all, it is an act of charity for the Prensa to put the true state of the case in good Spanish for the public information.

The official despatch of Col. Ayala on the sortie from Parana is published, and will be found in another column. The 'butcher's bill' is not given, the Colonel confining himself to mentioning that two of his 'aides' were slightly damaged, but that all conducted themselves bravely.

We understand that the Rev. Kenelm Vaughan intends shortly to start a religious paper, in Spanish, in this city. No one is better fitted for the task than the Rev. gentleman, who has met such a warm "accueil" from Argentine and Foreign Society since his advent to these shores. We shall be most happy to welcome our Reverend countryman to the "Editorial Bus", and will look out for a sung corner for him. The vehicle is now rather ricketty, and sometimes positively uncomfortable, but when times mend the passengers can subscribe and buy a decent trap.

We beg to caution our unmarried male subscribers against a most heartless dodge by which the pretty girls of Tennessee, U.S., are in the habit of converting guileless bachelors to the enviable position of obedient husbands. Everything, good or bad, that starts up in the States is copied here; and so may be this nice little feminine 'ruse.' The custom is for young ladies to tie up their taper fingers, and when the young gentlemen callers in the evening enquire the cause, blushingly reply, "I burnt them while broiling the beefsteak this morning." They think to catch husbands upon the belief that they (the girls) are real homely creatures, but the monotony of the proceeding has resulted in the exposure of its hollowness.

The rain on Thursday has had but little good effect on the Southern camps; but it is, perhaps, too soon to expect it. The drought has been so severe and prolonged that the thirsty ground has quite observed all the rain that fell. The weather still looks unsettled, however, and another downpour is not unlikely.

The visitors at the Court yesterday had all some lachrimose news to impart. We had scarcely interviewed Mr. Golland, a farmer in the painting and glazing trade, from Itapé, when a survivor from the wreck of the Lea Bear sent in his card. We give full particulars in another column. The case of the survivors is a most urgent one, and we trust there will be no fumbling and bungling about despatching instant relief to the poor fellows.

Mr. Frank Pippett, who is rapidly assuming the same prominence in the horticultural line as Mr. Daws in a literary way, has favoured us with some pungent poetry on the Crisis, but we are constrained to hold it over till the pressure passes. Mr. P. takes our view of the matter, and recommends the pruning hook to be applied vigorously to private extravagance, carriages, high living and high heeled boots, above all to the superabundance to boshy newspapers now published.

Dr. Bernardo Irigoyen has resigned his seat on the Council of Public Instruction, and will be succeeded by Dr. A. Malaver, a first rate successor.

The installing of the Rt. Rev. Dr. Aneiros as Archbishop of Buenos Ayres, which will be a gorgeous ceremony, is already being prepared for by the National Government, which has asked Congress for a vote of 3,500 pats. to meet the necessary expenses. The trifle of 300 pats. is also asked for, to purchase some necessary furniture for the Archiepiscopal Palace.

A grand 'matinee musicale' will come off at the Colon Theatre to-morrow, for the benefit of the Poor of the city. 'Musical mornings' are great favorites with that droll entity dubbed 'good Society' in European capitals, and will, no doubt, take well here.

The 'kick out' given to a lot of Corporation clerks this week by Lord Mayor Umbrella, has thrown additional work on the Parochial Inspectors. The Municipal Inspectors are 'gone,' and the Parochial Inspectors are now asked to come and do the work of the dismissed in addition to their own. Our private impression is that they wont, and will kick up their heels.

The Pueblo gives a laughable acount of how a mounted baker came to unutterable grief on Thursday in the Tercero near Plaza Lorea. He did not want to take to the water, but the gibes and cries of "coward!" from the "gamins" nettled his vanity, and giving a kick to his Rosinante in he plunged. In a second horse, baker, baskets are all heels over head; the boys rush into the torrent and hold on by the baskets or snap at the loaves as they are carried along, all shouting and clinging to the panniers and the horse, the latter kicking like mad, while the raging water carried them along like corks. Fortunately the bridge between Calles Rivadavia and Piedad brought them up, and they were all pulled out (we were going to say by the shirt-collar, but there was not such a thing amongst the saturated lot).

The National Senate met on Thursday, at a quarter past two o'clock. The Executive's Message and project of Law asking for forty thousand pats. to help the inundated provinces of the Interior was read. Some routine business was transacted, and the House passed to the order of the day. The materials for Dr. Olguin's gas-works were exempted from duty, except some few articles which were struck out. Mr. Barra's petition was referred back to the Executive, and the House rose at a quarter past three o'clock.

The Italian community is getting up a dramatic society, and 'on dit' that an Italian theatre will shortly be started in this city.

The news from Entre Rios yesterday announced that Concordia is now defended by 250 Infantry. The rebels have committed some horrible murders in Gualeguay; a number of respectable persons have been thrown into prison, and many are hiding from the revolutionists' fury. Colonel Campos had reached Palmas without seeing anything of López Jordan. The Colonel has now 3,000 men; he was within a day's march of Concordia.

The news from the West Coast is to the 20th ult. There is a bit of a pecuniary squeeze in Chile as well as here. The Banks wont lend a rap, and everyone is hard up; 10 per cent is the rate for money, or no money. The very newest thing over there is an earthquake which was felt all over Chile at noon on the 15th ult. The streets were filled with people before anyone could say 'Jack Robinson,' and in Valparaiso several houses rolled over and others were injured; no person was made mincemeat of, happily The cigar-makers, changadores and tailors are all out on strike. There was an awful storm in the Cordillera the day of the earthquake; nobody absolutely killed, but snow seven feet deep. Another terrific conflagration is announced from Callao, damage not known. Small pox is raging at Chincha Baja.

The "Limpieza del Riachuelo" Commissioners received 100,000 m|c. from the Government yesterday. It is needless to say the stream is as filthy as ever. What could be expected for a mi crable instalment of 100,000 paper dollars?

The contraband "mare's nest" filled with two year old cannon, found at the Custom House the other day, turns out to be no contraband at all. The guns were bought and paid for by Government, which had forgotten all about them.

On the Square.—'An American,' says the New York Herald, 'has discovered the means of squaring a circle.' We might doubt this, but that Americans are thought to have squared a triangle—not far from the Lake of Geneva.

PARIS LETTER.

(From our Own Correspondent.)

April 15th.

Independent of any political bias the question is being examined, will Paris under the republican form of government be able to maintain its prestige in fashion, elegance, and art. It is assumed that a monarchy has the monopoly of these matters, ignoring that the people possess a natural taste for them, and will certainly find an outlet for their expressions. An absolute dynasty can decree monumental edifices in the end to perpetuate its own history, as well as in the interests of art, a republic ignores the first motive, and from principles of economy is restrained in giving an impetus to the last. If Paris, as it is alleged, has lived up to the present on the age of the Grand Monarch, such is not very complimentary to his ancestor, Francis I., still less to his successors. It is asserted that Paris life is now without distinction—soul, despite the elegance of recent receptions, dinners, 'matinées,' 'routs,' and balls, and that society is acquiring a decidedly 'bourgeois' tone. Never did the capital display greater evidence of luxury and wealth than at the present moment, after a period of such sacrifice and sorrow; never was the city observed to be more elegantly clean, to have the freshest of toilettes daily; the street channels are flushed with limpid rills, the public gardens stocked with the richest and rarest of season flowers; as for fashions, the ladies never displayed greater variety in shape and material, nor wore richer costumes as fathers and husbands but too well know. Respecting art, it is only necessary to visit the Public Auction Halls to learn what treasures are being disposed of, and at an advance of one thousand per cent. over previous quotations'; treasures are consigned to Paris as the best of markets, and where the French themselves buy up what is really valuable. The most celebrated artists have orders that will occupy them for years, and in sound, 'fact' literature, and first class music, France promises to surpass herself. It is a strange 'bourgeois' republic, where everybody appears to besiege the Herald's College; formerly persons with handles to their names never used them, in accordance with the spirit of indifference extended to them; we have changed all that; every citizen who can boast the title of 'comte or baron,' whether dating from the Crusades or the second Empire, informs the world of the fact by his visiting card, letter-head, or panel of his brougham, with as much pride, pomp, and circumstance, as if he belonged to the de Montfort and la Tremouille pedigrees.

The Government has made a blunder in dabbling in the elections either on patriotic or platonic grounds, and M. Thiers is taken in his own trap. He put forward the Foreign Secretary as candidate for the vacancy in the presentation of Paris, but citizens, as well as republicans, do not hold the assembly in the odor of sanctity, and consider that M. Thiers is forgetting his republican message of November last. Before departing for vacation, the united monarchical deputies of the Chamber snubbed the demand of Paris for a reimbursement, in part, for her losses during the siege, and the indemnity inflicted on her by the capitulation; they mocked her resistance, and considered her prolonged sufferings as so much self-prolonged obstinacy! The 'Rurals' at the last hour annulled the municipal franchise of Lyons, and the dismissed mayor, once a national teacher, M. Barodet, is spontaneously adopted by the republicans here as their candidate, as a protest against the summary conduct of the majority of the assembly, and an admonition to M. Thiers for his see-sawing policy. The eight elections to come off in the course of a fortnight will be all-important; the republicans, admirably organized, will vote without a division for their candidates, all of whom are intended to signify an early dissolution of the assembly, and a termination of a situation daily becoming as intolerable as it is childish, of Monarchists incapable of setting up a King, and too spiteful and unpatriotic to accept a prudent republic, in accordance with the grand majority of the nation. M. Thiers intends to pass his holidays, preparing a 'modus vivendi' for dissolving the House of Un-Representatives. To carry such a measure would justify the temporary postponement of organic laws and commercial treaties. The future is to fierce wars and faithless loves.

The writings of Sainte Beuve are being published on the "positively last night" principle. It is only a few months ago since "the last," a scrap volume, of his works appeared, and now the world is presented with his "Lettres a la princesse," and which will prove as popular as his inimitable "Lundis." However, these "Letters" were expected, and gossip was very busy about their contents. The Princess in question is the sister of Prince Napoleon, known as the Princess Mathilde, and widow of the late Prince Demidoff, from whom she was separated. She was a kind of Egeria to the late Emperor, and her 'salon' was the only one where literature and art, however little, were concentrated under the second Empire. Sainte Beuve was the sole distinguished 'litterateur' that Napoleon could win over, the captive was made the most of, and of course was created in due time a senator with the usual stipend. Between the Princess and Sainte Beuve there was "a serious affection," and the letters are a fragment of his life, perhaps of his heart. It was the letters of the Princess to her admirer that people desired, touching as they did on all subjects, persons and events, under the second Empire, and where life at the Tuileries did not escape her caustic pen. It is not clear about what the two celebrities quarreled; rumor asserts that the Princess entrusted to Sainte Beuve the perusal of her confidential Diary, extending over her entire life, and that he found by accident a few pages forgotten to be removed, reflecting severely on his own character, and denouncing his importunities "on hands and feet" to be made a Senator; others attribute the dispute to his refusal to write a puff about that joint-stock performance of the Emperor's—the Life of Julius Cæsar. According to Sainte Beuve's will his Executor was only to surrender the letters of the Princess on her delivering up his, which has been done.

Saint-Beuve avows that he has 'ulcerated' more persons by his praise than by his censure, and that he had the habit of holding a dialogue with himself in a loud voice, and his housekeeper had orders never to interrupt such discussions. He had but one interview with the Emperor—perhaps he felt it was enough—when Napoleon assured him, "I read your articles in the Moniteur regularly."—a journal which he had ceased to write in since three years! Saint-Beuve suggests that if you desire to know whether or not you have committed a fault, do as the Orientals, 'look into the eyes of the enemy.' Like all old persons, he had a contempt for the present, and believed only in the past. He saw so much of men that he felt, like the cynic of old, 'surteited with them,' and believed that the only thing not odious in life was death.

Speaking of France, he truly observes, "Indulgence increases the disorders of the press, the same as repression irritates it; the nation is not reasonable—the very men who demand chimeras would be the most astonished in the world if they obtained them, and would recommence the same play all the same. Such improvidence is incurable. Words defray everything; when a 'mot d'ordre' is found, it it but rhymes and jingles well, each person repeats it, so that it becomes a cry and is assumed to be the voice of the nation, to be public opinion." He died as he lived, a free-thinker, and upbraids the Princess with the crudity of her religious convictions and of an irreligion which, if left to him only to judge, he never would desire to see in any lady. He protests strongly against being considered author of a definition comparing an uneducated man to a 'wild flower,' an instructed man to a 'hot-house plant.' The flowers are for lady comparisons.

In the parliamentary inquiry, just concluded, into the origin and working of the Government of the Fourth of September, one of the questors of the Corps Legislatif had received an application on the 3d of that month from a gentleman, requesting an order of admission "for his wife and daughter to witness the invasion of the Assembly on the following day," when the event came off. In the same Blue-book, a Colonel Dauvergne deposes that all Republicans, past, present and to come, are 'canaille,' and that Trochu was the only honest man during the siege of Paris, and, it might be added, the only one who boasted of a 'plan,' but had none; who vowed to die in defence of the Empress, but did not; and who declared he would never capitulate, but did.

As the present is a Republic without Republicans, it is not surprising to find that on the 27th of last month a young cavalry officer made a speech, in uniform, at some Young Men's Christian Association at Lyons. He asserted that only the privileged hereditary families had a right to govern; that free-masonry —Turk's head ever—had its hand in every crime, in every disorder, and armed every assassin, and that its triangle identified the craft with the Reds. He concluded by hoping 'the sword of France would soon restore the Pope to his throne.'

It is alleged that the scheme of postal cards is a failure, owing to the bad carrying out of the principle. Instead of the postage being fixed at one sous, it was double that rate the authorities adopted, and as an additional sous would frank a closed letter, the latter is consequently preferred. Besides, the card itself is clumsy and unattractive. I observed advertised a few days ago 'invisible ink' for writing on postal cards; the recipient had, of course, 'only to hold the card before the fire, to bring out the characters, and to advise, in ordinary ink, at the same time, to so act."

That curious animal institution, the Ham Fair, is over; it is certainly a place devoted more to curiosity than to business—to the sale of domestic lumber ('bric-a-brac,' as the French say) rather than of salted provisions. The Fair was more animated than in former years, and of course great bargains were to be had just at the seller's own 'fixed price.' Hams, sausages &c are here supposed to come from every part of the globe; the sign-boards assert the vendors come from districts famous for cured comestibles, but omit to add, have been residing in Paris for the last twenty years: indeed, the stalls are only branches of their shops.

Never did the police oftener whisper in the ears of silent and innocent-looking loafers, "Follow for a moment to the office," than this year. Even rogues are arrested with politeness, and above all, without noise and good-humoredly. Half a ton of bad hams was seized.

Equally famous is the Ginger-bread Fair now being held, and which claims its origin as far back as the eleventh century, when some parties obtained a charter to hold a fair for ginger-bread and old iron.' Rheims and Dijon are celebrated for ginger-bread, but Paris, in everything generous, makes the article, as much as 1000 tons a year, and employs for wraps paper having the arms of the above cities engraved on it. Belgium and Switzerland also manufacture much of the same article. It appears to be an Asiatic delicacy, that came to the Western nations through Greece. It is generally made of rye-flour, molasses and honey, and seasoned with different essences. It is always soft, and is made up in every imaginable form. When a political character is copied, the model has to be sent to the authorities for approval; so that dramas, newspapers and ginger-bread are alike liable to the Censor. It is a cake largely eaten by the French at dessert, but at the Fair it is the 'mode' to eat some public character.

The shops are crowded with eggs in every form and color, made up as a sweetmeat or a toy; there are moulting hens, unfledged chickens, and chipping eggs, babies inside, ostrich eggs, and children and nurses in nests—all happy. In a few hours hence dreary and weary Lent will be over, and patriots will be in a better frame of mind for rejoicing at the deputies having gone home for six weeks.

At Melun a young man, or lad, aged twenty was guillotined a few days ago for a savage assault on his father; the latter on recovering from his wounds, visited his son, and expressed his disapprobation "at the length of time his son was left unexecuted;" he pardoned his boy and departed. The unfortunate cried like a child, begged the executioner to promise, 'not to hurt him,' and before he could receive a reply, was pushed under the knife, then into his grave close by; all finished in fourteen minutes!

The Corporation and the Gas Company are experimenting on a system of safety cocks, placed at fixed distances by means of which in case of fire, all gas can be turned off from the neighbourhood of the flames.

VERY LATEST,

The Royal Mail steamer Neva entered Montevideo yesterday evening, about 4 o'clock. The agents there telegraphed that they would send up the mails by the Portena, if possible; so they may be expected here this morning.

ON 'CHANGE.

June 6, 1873.

Ounces	400
Sovereigns	122½
Patacons	25
National Bonds	78½
Cedulas	89

There was a very marked reaction in the Cedula market to day. The King bought everything he could get, and the belief was that Cedulas had been oversold; the King knows it, and has entered to corner the market.

Bonds rule very up, and cannot be had. One buyer offered to take for the end of the month 100,000 Bonds, but they could not be had.

The sales of Bonds to-day were—

For June 30		20,000	78⅝
		10,000	79
For July 31		10,000	78½
		10,000	78½
Cedulas—

15th June		10,000	89
		25,000	89½
31st July		10,000	90½

In the liquidation the following sale—

10,000 at 90½ do July.

Bonds—

10,000 for end month 79.

4,000 do to-morrow 78⅝.

20,000 do end June 79½.

And buyers at last rate, no sellers.

Exchange ruled bank paper 49½, Commercial paper 49⅜-49½; Bank rate francs 5,20; on Antwerp commercial bills 5,23; on France 5,24-5,25.

Money ruled better in the Bolsa but difficult outside, in fact in the open market there is the same stringency as ever, and all parties complain, although the banks are not discounting they renew, which somewhat helps the situation.

The telegram from Montevideo to-day came at 4 o'clock. Up to that hour the packet had not entered. The following arrivals are reported—

Modest, Havannah.

Itboil, Pernambuco.

Wahsal, Savannah.

Isabel, New York.

Portena leaves to-night.

Mr. G.R. Gopp, the leading stock broker of Montevideo, was welcomed on 'Change to-day.

Don Luis Martinez was saluted by all for manfully standing up for exporters' rights under the Government decree. Mr. Martinez gave a full history of the affair. All condemn the Government in the business.

Some transaction in Southern Railway and Central Argentine Railway shares was spoken of. Some Gas shares offered. 2800 per share asked.

This was rather a dull day on 'Change, people looked for an early telegram announcing the steamer Neva, but it came not; and what with the wet foggy weather, money tight, and discount brokers as disconsolate as ever, the day was a heavy one. The discussion raised in the papers about the bank, the Directors, and the oficina de Cambios, it is hoped has terminated, as the present is not the proper moment for such discussions, and the good sense of the board of Directors in taking no notice whatever of the newspaper articles is praised by all.

The board of Directors of the Buenos Ayres Great Southern Railway notifies the shareholders for the Dolores Extension, that the first call on these shares £2,10, will become payable on 30th June 1873, said payment to be made at the London and River Plate Bank.

The Treasury has paid out the following sums on account of the Public Works going on.

To Mr Peter Stuart, Rio 4. Railway works $f.80,955.

To Telfener and Co. Tucuman Railway works do. 61,157,

The other payments were—

To Mr. Frias, bills due $f.20,000.

To " Schlieper do. 6,500.

To " Malbran do. 14,088.

To " Pillado for services Capt. Garibaldi 3.000.

The receipts of the Custom House on 21st ult. amounted to the high sum of 123,615.

Mr. A. Silveyra, has obtained patent for a new system for preserving and utilizing the refuse of saladeros, we hope it will amount to something; the only man as yet who has shaped his theories in this regard to a practical from is Mr Giebert of Fray Bentos, but then we have only one Giebert in the Plate.

The telegraph wires were disturbed to-day and we got nothing from the Mount, doubtless owing to the storm. As regards Entre-Riano war news, we have the 'parte oficial' of the battle of Parana, which we give in another column.

The following re-pecting the working of the City of Buenos Ayres Tramway Company is important:—

Receipts per mile in	1871	$14	60
"	1872	12	62
Expenses "	1871	12	23
"	1872	8	57
Profit "	1871	2	37
"	1872	4	05

There are 387 shares of the 3rd issue of this stock yet unsold.

The Islay, of the Liverpool and Pacific line, is now very long overdue, and fears are entertained that, being a new vessel, some mishap to the machinery may have occurred.

Respecting the present position of the Stock and Money Market of Montevideo, we give the following exhaustive report, as it will interest the general commercial public of this market:—

At Montevideo the monetary and commercial crisis in Buenos Ayres has prevented that market being so active as it would otherwise have been now that the fever has left and business is once more entering upon its regular course; the banks and private capitalists fearing a rise in interest in the sister city which would offer an inducement to the withdrawal of capital from that market and its employal in this, have been again drawing in their horns, and there was evidently a very tight squeeze when the liquidations of last month had to be arranged. The Deuda Interna fell as low as 54, but this figure soon brought out the hidden stores of money, and it turned out when the banks closed that afternoon there were plenty of buyers at 55 cash. On the 2nd inst. a considerable reaction set in and 61½ was paid for the end of the present month, and 60 offered for the end of August, but without sellers, for the latter date under 63. Since then a party who has sold a very large amount on time as a speculation has been using the most herculean efforts to keep this stock down, and purchase to cover his sales. Every day he offers large quantities of stock at cash, knowing that he can do this with impunity in the present state of our money market, but so far his attempts have not effected much; and it looks very much as if for this month and next, stock has been over-sold, so that as all large holders do not care to sell there may be a want of stock towards the end of the month, and prices advance accordingly, although the figure to which this debt may rise must depend upon the state of our money market. Considering, however, the great elasticity of the Montevidean market, we should think that in July, at any rate, money would be somewhat easier, and then we may look for a considerable advance. Fortuna Shares continue worth about $25, and as the late auctions made by this society have gone off with comparative success, sales being made at 50 and 75 per cent higher rates than at the previous ones, while in a few days there will be a general meeting held to name a new Directory which is to be specially empowered to push this society's claim on the Government for an indemnity for the breach of contract committed by the Government of General Batlle in sanctioning the establishment of the Plaza de Frutos of Tres Cruces, when it had been explicitly decreed that there could be no such Plaza nearer Montevideo than the Union, which was presented to the Government of General Flores under thes express condition by the So iedad Fortuna. Under these circumstances we are very likely to see these shares advance a good deal as soon as the negotiations with the present Govt. are commenced. Progreso Oriental, at the close of last month, under the tightness of our money market, fell to $52, which, as only $50 per share has been paid up, is equivalent to 4 per cent prem.; but on the last day many buyers appeared in the market, and these shares are now quoted at 55. Mr. Tuzoni's port project, which appears likely to meet with approval in committee, and perhaps to be sanctioned by the Chambers this month, will give increased value to the lands of this society, which lie exactly contiguous to the locality chosen for the new port; so that we may see these shares at 70 or 80 before long, in case the scheme above referred to is passed. Playa shares are nominally at 190, at which price about 1400 changed hands about a fortnight ago. These shares will also advance in all probability during this month and next, and the directors will make an auction on the 22nd inst. and as numerous offers have lately been made privately for the Society's lands at good rates, it is expected that the sales will be considerable and a dividend of $30 to 40 per share be declared soon after the Auction. The Sociedad Inmobiliaria however is the greatest company at present existing in our city for the sale and purchase of lands, and when we see the names of Messrs Rodger, McKinnon, Nettekoven, Henser, Congreve, Mayan Essing and others of the leading Merchants and Brokers amongst the shareholders and directors, we may feel sure that this is no bubble concern like the territorial "et hoc genus omne," but a 'bona fide' company where the affairs will be aptly and properly administrated by clever and influential men. The shares have been very much looked after and 10 per cent premium has been paid for the end of July, as all feel convinced that the shares must advance considerably in value, looking at the great demand there is for them amongst the general public and the excellent 'Estatutos' of the Society which have already been published in this journal. Of one thing investors may be sure and that is that in Montevideo they have abundance of capital for all their wants, and that any tightness now felt in that Money market is only produced sympathetically by the crisis now prevalent in this city; that soon money will be easier down there and that the Deuda Interna and Shares in the various societies which have weathered the storm of bad times during the last 3 or 4 years will all rise a good deal as soon monetary facilities improve a little.

Respecting the land sales published in our last issue we have received the following communication—

Buenos Ayres, June 6th, 1873,

Reconquista, 43.

Dear Sirs,

Reading over your On 'Change column of yesterday's date, I came across a list which you say you consider a very useful and important one—taken from the Tribuna—giving total sales effected in real estate during the month of May.

I find the district of Quilmes figuring for $27,750 m/c., which, I presume, should be read $27,750,000 m/c.

If no such error has crept into your colleague's paper, you must allow me to differ with you as to its utility and importance.

I, one out of about thirty or forty auctioneers, have effected the following sales in that district during last month—

7 squares frontage on Calle Comercio	$960,000
45 squares, distant 35 squares from station	1,650,000
8 manzanas, distant 10 squares from station	750,000
4 suertes of chacra three miles from town	588,000
	$3,848,000
Smaller lots for no less than	275,000
Total	$4,123,000

From the values represented, the interest taken in that locality lately, as well as the paucity of sales in any of the other suburbs, most of these sales are well known to the public.

I remain, dear sirs,

respectfully,

CHAS. H. BOLLAERT.

DEATH.

On the 6th June, after a lingering and painful illness, at her residence, 319 Calle Santiago del Estero, Mary Francis MacKenzie, widow of the late Mr. George Wilks, of this city. The funeral will take place to-day (June 7) at 3 o'clock p.m. Monmouthshire and Hereford papers please copy.

The Crisis.

The crisis in the Cognac Market is now at its height. Barran and Briet hold the market, being the sole Agents of Dupuy's famed Brandy in the Plate. The Brandy tightness is complained of by all the hotel keepers and confiteros in town, and until a few more clerks are put on at the custom-house, a returning ease in the Brandy Market cannot be looked for.

BEST FOOD FOR INFANTS.—"H.R.H Prince Albert Victor thrives so well upon it that it must be very good."—T. M. Kendall, Medical Attendant to H.R.H. the Princess of Wales. "This food resembles Mother's Milk as closely as possible."—Dr. H Barker on Right Foods for Infants. "Highly nourishing and easily digested."—Dr Hassell. It combines the most valuable "Flesh and Bone-forming Substance," and differs essentially from other farinaceous food., which being quite unable to afford proper nourishment to a growing infant, frequently lead to a rickety and idiotic condition. Savory and Moore's preparation has also the advantage of being freed from the ground husk of the corn, which produces irritation of the bowels and intractable diarrhœa. No boiling or straining required. Sold in tins by Savory and Moore, 143 New Bond-street, London. Procurable of all Chemists and Italian Warehousemen throughout the world.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
(Ex Army Med. Staff)
CHLORODYNE
IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the Inventor of CHLORODYNE hat the story of the Defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent Hospital Physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne, that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—The Times, July 12, 1864.
The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than
DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE
REMEDIA, USES AND ACTION.
THIS INVALUABLE REMEDY produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while Medical men extol its virtues most extensively using it in great quantities in the following diseases:—
Diseases in which it is found eminently useful—Cholera, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Colics, Coughs, Asthma, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Cough, Cramp, Hysteria, &c.
EXTRACTS FROM MEDICAL OPINIONS.
The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to he College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport hat he had received information to the effect that he only remedy of any service in Cholera wa Chlorodyne.—See Lancet Dec. 31, 1864.
From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay:—"Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma and Dysentry. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health after 18 month's severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed."
Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports [Dec. 1865] that nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne was administered the patient recovered.
Extract from Medical Times, Jan. 12, 1866.—"Chlorodyne is prescribed by scores of orthodox medical practitioners. Of course it would no thus be singularly popular did it not 'supply a want and fill a place.'"
Extract from the General Board of Health London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—"So strong r are we convinced of the immense value of his remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."
Beware of spurious and dangerous compounds sold as CHLORODYNE, from which frequent fatal results have followed.
See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal Aug. 1, 1869, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the Inventor of Chlorodyne; that is a always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.
CAUTION.—None genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bott

BEAUTIFUL HAIR

Can only be obtained by the use of Rowland's Macassar Oil. It prevents the Hair falling off or turning grey, strengthens weak hair, causes it to grow on bald places, and makes it beautifully soft, pliable, and glossy. Price 3s. 6d., 7s., 10s. 6d. equal to four small, and 21s. per bottle.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.

Ask for Rowland's Macassar Oil, and avoid all other cheap articles under the same or similar names as spurious imitations. Each Bottle has a "Glass Stopper" in place of the Cork, as formerly. All with the 'Cork' are spurious imitations. This notice is deemed necessary, as the Proprietors have received intimation that a large quantity of Counterfeit, of the most pernicious quality, has lately been sent from France and Germany to India, South America, and the Colonies, under their names.

A BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION

Is obtained by the use of Rowland's Kalydor, which allays all irritation and tenderness of the skin, removes cutaneous disfigurements, freckles, and tan, and imparts a healthy and blooming appearance to the complexion and skin. During the heat and dust of Summer especially, and in cases of Sunburn and Stings of Insects, it is of the utmost use. Price 4s 6d. and 8s. 6d. per bottle. Ask for "Rowland's Kalydor," and see that their signature is in red ink on every bottle, as theirs is the only genuine.

WHITE AND SOUND TEETH

Are indispensable to personal attraction, and healthy longevity, by the proper mastication of food. Rowland's Odonto Pearl Dentifrice preserves and imparts a pearl-like white ness to the teeth, eradicates tartar and spots o incipient decay, strengthens the gums, and gives a pleasing fragrance to the breath. Price 2s. 9d. per box. Ask for "Rowland's Odonto," and see that their name is on the Government Stamp of every box.

ROWLAND'S ESSENCE OF TYRE

Never fails to produce immediately a perfect change in Red or Grey Hair, Whiskers, Eyebrows, &c., to a beautiful glossy and permanent Brown or Black, which colour remains so durable that neither washing or perspiration can remove it. Price 4s., 7s. 6d, and 10s. 6d per bottle

All these articles have been used and justly appreciated by all the Sovereigns and Courts of Europe, the Pope of Rome, and the aristocracy of Europe during the last seventy years, being of inestimable value to those who have once used them. They are sold by all Chemists, Perfumers, and Bazaars, throughout India, the Colonies, and South America.
